martinwolf* Announces Three Promotions

Walnut Creek, CA (September 22, 2017) – martinwolf | M&A Advisors is happy to announce the promotion of Kevin Chang to Associate, and the promotions of Matthew Putzulu and Walter Yoon to Vice President.

Matthew and Walter recently marked their fifth anniversary at the firm, each joining in June 2012. Kevin has been with martinwolf for three years.

Over the course of his career, Kevin has worked on several key transactions—including Insight Enterprises' (Nasdaq: NSIT) 2017 acquisition of Datalink (Nasdaq: DTLK), AST Corporation's equity investment from Tailwind Capital, and Zones' acquisition of nrastructure Technologies. Kevin's deal experience includes private equity recapitalizations, negotiated sales, and both stock and asset sales. Kevin graduated from University of California, Riverside with a B.S. in Business Administration and Finance Concentration.

Matthew has advised several leading companies in their successful M&A transactions, including CSC (now Nasdaq: DXC) in its investment in Microsoft Gold partner eBECs, and Thrupoint in the sale of its US and International divisions to Acumatica. In addition to supervising the company's marketing and intelligence initiatives, he is the Microsoft Dynamics coverage lead. Matthew graduated from University of California, Berkeley with a B.A. in History with Honors, where he was Managing Editor of The Daily Californian.

Walter has advised several leading IT Solution and Service providers in their successful M&A transactions—including Insight Enterprises in its 2017 acquisition of Datalink, Systemax in the divestiture of its North American Technology Group to PCM (Nasdaq: PCMI), and Oracle Platinum partner AST Corporation in its equity investment from Tailwind Capital. Walter graduated from Cornell University with a B.S. in Applied Economics and Management, after first joining the firm as an intern analyst in 2012.

martinwolf President Marty Wolf said, "A guiding principle at our firm is that we believe it's not your bank but your banker who creates the best possible M&A experience. The tenure and experience of our team translates directly into the highest level of service for our clients."

Congratulations, Kevin, Matthew and Walter!
