martinwolf Announces Two Promotions

Walnut Creek, CA, (May 16, 2017) – martinwolf | M&A Advisors is happy to announce the promotions of Matthew Putzulu and Walter Yoon to Senior Associate.

Matthew holds a B.A. in History with Honors from UC Berkeley, where he was Managing Editor of The Daily Californian. With his strong editorial background, he was first hired to support martinwolf's marketing initiatives in June 2012 as a Marketing/Communications Specialist. He was promoted to Director of Marketing and Communications in Dec. 2014, and became an Associate in July 2015. Today, in addition to supervising the company's marketing and intelligence initiatives, he is the Microsoft Dynamics coverage lead. Key transactions he has been involved with include CSC's (now NYSE:DXC) investment in Microsoft Gold partner eBECS and the sale of Thrupoint's US and International divisions to Acuative.

Walter first joined the firm as an intern analyst in Spring 2012. After graduating from Cornell University with a B.S. in Applied Economics and Management, he was hired as an Analyst in June 2012. Demonstrating tremendous work ethic, he has been an integral part of some of the firm's largest and most successful transactions. In his time at martinwolf, he has advised several leading IT Solution and Service providers in their successful M&A transactions, including Insight Enterprises (Nasdaq:NSIT) in its 2017 acquisition of Datalink (Nasdaq:DTLK); Systemax in the Divestiture of its North American Technology Group to PCM (Nasdaq:PCMI); and Oracle Platinum partner AST Corporation in its equity investment from Tailwind Capital's.

martinwolf President Marty Wolf said, "They both are very dedicated, operate with the highest level of integrity, and have shown tremendous growth. Both have unique skills and made valuable contributions to the firm's success."

Congratulations, Matthew and Walter!
